435	€ 250	7½ct geel. In 1925 verschenen aan de postkantoren veldelen van 30 zegels, 10 zegels hoog en drie zegels breed. Deze veldelen zijn afkomstig van vellen van 180 zegels, bestemd voor opname in postzegelboekjes. Het vervaardigen van deze vellen was een "foutje". Met de velindeling zoals deze nu was gemaakt zouden boekjes aan de rechterzijde geniet moeten worden, omdat links geen velrand aanwezig was. Zou men deze veldelen toch gebruiken dan zouden de zegels kopstaand in de boekjes komen. De zegels hadden 180 graden gedraaid moeten zitten. Om de zegels niet te hoeven venietigen werden de vellen van 180 zegels in veldelen van 30 gescheurd(zo geen tête bêtes ontstaan) en aan de postkantoren geleverd. Alle veldelen hebben een doorgeperforeerde velrand behalve de uiterst rechtse, waarop ook het etsingnummer 31 driehoek, postfris, luxe ex. Nooit een boekje uitgegeven met 7½ct geel, derhalve waarschijnlijk een uniek stuk!!

1663	€ 50.000	FRANCE 1849-1900, (un)used/never hinged collection, via a very good relation in Paris we got the tip that the owner of this collection was ready to sell. He brought us in contact with the owner and we made an appointment to see the collection and here it is now for sale in our auction. The collection belongs to a lady who withhold this book. Her husband died two years ago and she sold his collection immediately, but what she didn't know that the first book of the collection was in a secret safe at the bank. When she sold the other part of the collection the buyer found a pile of certificates of the stamps that are in this collection, but of course they could not find the stamps. When they opened the Safe, begin of December 2020 they found this book. She phoned the man who bought the rest of the collection, this person sold the collection and threw away the certificates, he was not interested in stamps anymore and sent her to our good relation. That's the story about how we found this absolute stunning collection of this quality collection of classic stamps of this Popular Country. In the collection are many stamps you will find seldom in this quality. The average of the collection is unused/never hinged, also including the 1 franc Vermillion (cat. value €125.000,=), this is the only stamp with a certificate (probably this was the last stamp that the collector bought), the rest of the certificates are not there anymore but many are also signed by the better experts. We did make a global estimation of the total collection and came to a total catalogue value between €650.000,= and €700.000,=(Yvert).
